Attachment A

In addition to the provisions outlined in the accompanying Board Policy and Administrative Regulation, the following guidelines have been established and incorporated into the respective Student Handbooks.

Elementary Schools

Students should dress for the weather as recess occurs throughout all seasons of the school year.

Elkins Park School

Parents and students are expected to exercise discretion in the matter of personal appearance. For health and safety reasons, something must be worn on the bottom of your feet at all times while under school jurisdiction. Slides and flip-flops are NOT permitted. Expensive personal items such as cell phones, technology, jewelry, watches, pocketbooks, etc., should not be brought to school. The school is not responsible for any personal item lost by the student.

Cedarbrook Middle School

Appropriate and respectable attire should be worn in school at all times. Attire should not be offensive to others. Parents and students should use discretion in the matter of personal appearance. An administrator will deal with individual student indiscretion in this matter. Parents will be called to bring appropriate clothing.

In order to maintain an appropriate educational environment, all students must follow these guidelines:

- For health and safety reasons shoes must be worn on feet at all times while at school.
- Hats, scarves, bandanas, and hoods are not to be worn in the school building at any time.
- Sunglasses are not to be worn in the building except for medical reasons.
- Skirts and shorts must reach the middle of a student's thigh.
- Tops must reach at least to the waist. No bare midriff tops, tank tops, spaghetti strap tops, off-the-shoulder blouses, or halter-tops are permitted. Shoulder straps must be a minimum of 2" in width.
- Pants/shorts must be worn at waist level.
- Clothing that inappropriately exposes body parts or underclothing is not permitted.
- No clothing or jewelry is permitted that displays profanity, suggestive phrases, alcohol, tobacco, drug advertisements or other inappropriate phrases or symbols.
- Heavy winter coats and heavy jackets may not be worn in the building. They must be stored in student lockers; or on hooks in classrooms
- Pajamas and sleepwear are not to be worn to school.

Personal Items

- Students are STRONGLY DISCOURAGED from bringing cell phones, cameras, or headphones, toys, skateboards, electronic games, or any like item to school. If students bring these items, they must lock them in their lockers. Students may use cell phones at lunchtime if parents allow them to be brought to school. School staff members have the right to confiscate these items if students are observed using them during class time. Items will be held in the office and returned to students at the end of the school day.

- Expensive items such as jewelry, watches, pocketbooks, etc., should not be brought to school nor should students bring excessive amounts of money.
- The school is not responsible for lost personal items. Administrators will NOT conduct searches for such items.

Cheltenham High School

According to Board Policy 221, the Board authorizes the Superintendent to enforce school regulations prohibiting student dress or grooming practices which, among other things: present a hazard to the health or safety of the student him/herself or to others in the school; materially interfere with school work; create disorder; disrupt the educational program; or prevent the student from achieving his/her own educational objectives because of blocked vision or restricted movement.

In an effort to support this policy, the following expectations for student dress have been established to promote a safe and optimum learning environment:

- Pants must be worn at the waist.
- Skirts, dresses and shorts must reach mid-thigh.
- Shirts, blouses and dresses must completely cover the abdomen, back and shoulders. Shirts or tops must cover the waistband of pants, shorts or skirts with no midriff visible.
- Head apparel (hats and hoods) are not permitted to be worn inside the school building, with the exception of those worn for medical or religious purposes.
- Clothing and accessories including backpacks, patches, jewelry and notebooks must not display (1) racial or ethnic slurs/symbols, (2) gang affiliations, (3) vulgar, subversive or sexually suggestive language or images; nor should they promote products which students may not legally buy, such as alcohol, tobacco and illegal drugs.
- Prohibited items include (1) studded or chained accessories, (2) sunglasses, except for health purposes, (3) sleepwear/slippers and (4) skin-tight clothing
- Outer coats and jackets are not to be worn in the building.

The school administration reserves the right to determine whether the student's attire is within the limits of decency and modesty. The Principal may allow exceptions in special circumstances or occasions such as holidays or special performances and may further prescribe dress in certain classes such as physical education and science labs. Any student not attired in accordance with the policy shall be subject to the following consequences:

- Correct the violation or spend the remainder of the day in in-school suspension (ISS) or be sent home.
- Students could be issued school clothing to wear in place of, or over, the inappropriate clothing. If this occurs, the student will be charged for the clothing and it will be treated as a school obligation.
- If a student does not wear the school-issued garments, clothes must be brought from home or the student may spend the remainder of the day in ISS or be sent home.
- Repeat offenders shall be subject to progressive discipline.
